

CAROLINA NAVARRO

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

30/11/2021

Ekdahl & Navarro: The iconic padel player partnering with her swedish roots.

The Swedish Padel Federation gave this afternoon green light to the pair, who have teamed up for the upcoming Swedish Master tournament next December 10

Enthusiasm, excitement, and a strong homecoming are what have drawn the elite dame of padel Carolina Navarro to Emmie Ekdahl's court to play the Swedish Championship, starting December 10.

Turn of events found the 3rd Swedish ranked player without a partner for this rally, the yearly highlight of the padel season. Emmie trusted her luck and found Carolina not only available but willing and ready to play in Sweden. Time and time again Navarro had been tempted to play in her mom's country, but the timing just wasn't right.

Ms. Navarro has achieved above and beyond in padel. The truth is her hunger and spirit are solid. The pair are already training not only to share their grit inside the court. They too share the core values of Emmie's vision of padel, as a rounded set of skills and mindset that make up for the athlete inside and outside the padel court. This is in the end is what has made this match possible.

Ekdahl & Navarro will be releasing further information on their training and common grounds exclusively on their media outlets.

www.emmieekdahl.com

@emmiepadel
@navarrocarolina

